Is your audience ready for a journey of stories and sounds of the great Johnny Cash? The Church of Cash is true to the music of Johnny Cash, and singer Jay Ernest's deep baritone voice sings like a prairie breeze and stomps like a boot heel. Church of Cash is not a country band; it is a tribute band with the express purpose of honoring the indelible legacy of Johnny Cash. Featuring an incredibly talented foursome of musicians, they will dig deep into their Church of Cash repertoire for an evening of story and song.

Jason Lyle Black is an award-winning piano entertainer whose clever arrangements, fun stories and onstage charm has won countless fans throughout the world. He takes audiences on a musical journey, playing nearly 100 songs in his fast-paced show, interwoven with his comedic stories like "Songs Not to Play at People's Weddings and Funerals." Black has the remarkable ability to play as easily sitting backward as forwards, while performing music from Disney and Broadway classics, to songs from the Beatles, AC/DC, and movie theme songs.
