The Hall Sisters have established themselves as one of the up-and-coming acts in the country pop genre. Their sound has been best described as a combination of the earthy vibe of Lady A, the soulful harmony of the Carpenters, all blended with the energy of country-pop and a nod to famous sisters acts of the past.

Empire Wild is a genre-bending, crossover trio. Ken and Mitch bring all the cello has to offer - bowed, plucked, chopped and more. Brandon sings and plays anything he can get his hands on - often a cajon, sometimes a guitar or piano, maybe some ankle bells. All classically trained, the three musicians met at Julliard and formed Empire Wild as a vehicle for their love of musical exploration - fusing the sounds of pop, folk, Broadway and more into their songwriting and performances.
